1 . Introduction - What is TPM Specialist Certification Program

The TPM Specialist Certification Program is a certification system in which Japan Institute of Plant Maintenance (JIPM) certify individuals as they are qualified to become leaders or evangelists for the correct promotion and dissemination of TPM (Total Productive Maintenance). The main target group is individuals regardless of the organization they belong to, e.g., TPM consultants, in-company promoters, interpreters, etc.

TPM, which was born in Japan in 1971, is widely recognized globally in the manufacturing industry, and the number of companies engaged in its activities is increasing. While it has been spreading globally in recent years, there have been some cases where improvement activities have failed to produce results due to a lack of correct knowledge of TPM. JIPM assume that this situation is caused by the fact that those who teach TPM are lack of correct knowledge, and that the companies receiving instruction are also promoting activities based on an incorrect understanding of TPM.

Under these circumstances, JIPM, the originator of TPM, decided to make a program to certify individuals with correct knowledge in order to prevent the spread of the wrong TPM and to further promote and encourage TPM activities.

1 – 1 . Overview

The TPM Specialist Certification Program is for individuals involved in the promotion and dissemination of TPM activities. The program has four classes based on the knowledge or teaching achievements and awards of the applicant, and JIPM certify individuals who meet the requirements. JIPM will provide a certification card to each certificant and disclose their information on the JIPM web page. This allows not only the certificants but also the company requesting instruction to see their status.

In addition, certificants need to register with the TPM Network, registration-only site. This membership site will provide the latest information from JIPM, as well as members-only analysis data.

1 – 2. Advantages of Certification

The TPM Specialist Certification Program is basically intended for TPM consultants, in-company promoters, and interpreters. The advantages of program for each position are as follows.

- TPM consultants

JIPM certify that individuals have a certain level of knowledge and teaching achievements, and the consultant himself/herself can indicate it. JIPM also disclose information about certified TPM consultants on the web page, so clients can easily check the certification status.

- TPM in-company promoters

The process of certification will help you acquire the correct TPM knowledge. In addition, you will be able to indicate your certification, which will help to enhance your status as a TPM promoter within your company.

- TPM interpreters

The process of certification will help you acquire the correct TPM knowledge. In addition, you will be able to indicate your certification, which will help you to prove to your clients that you are a knowledgeable interpreter.

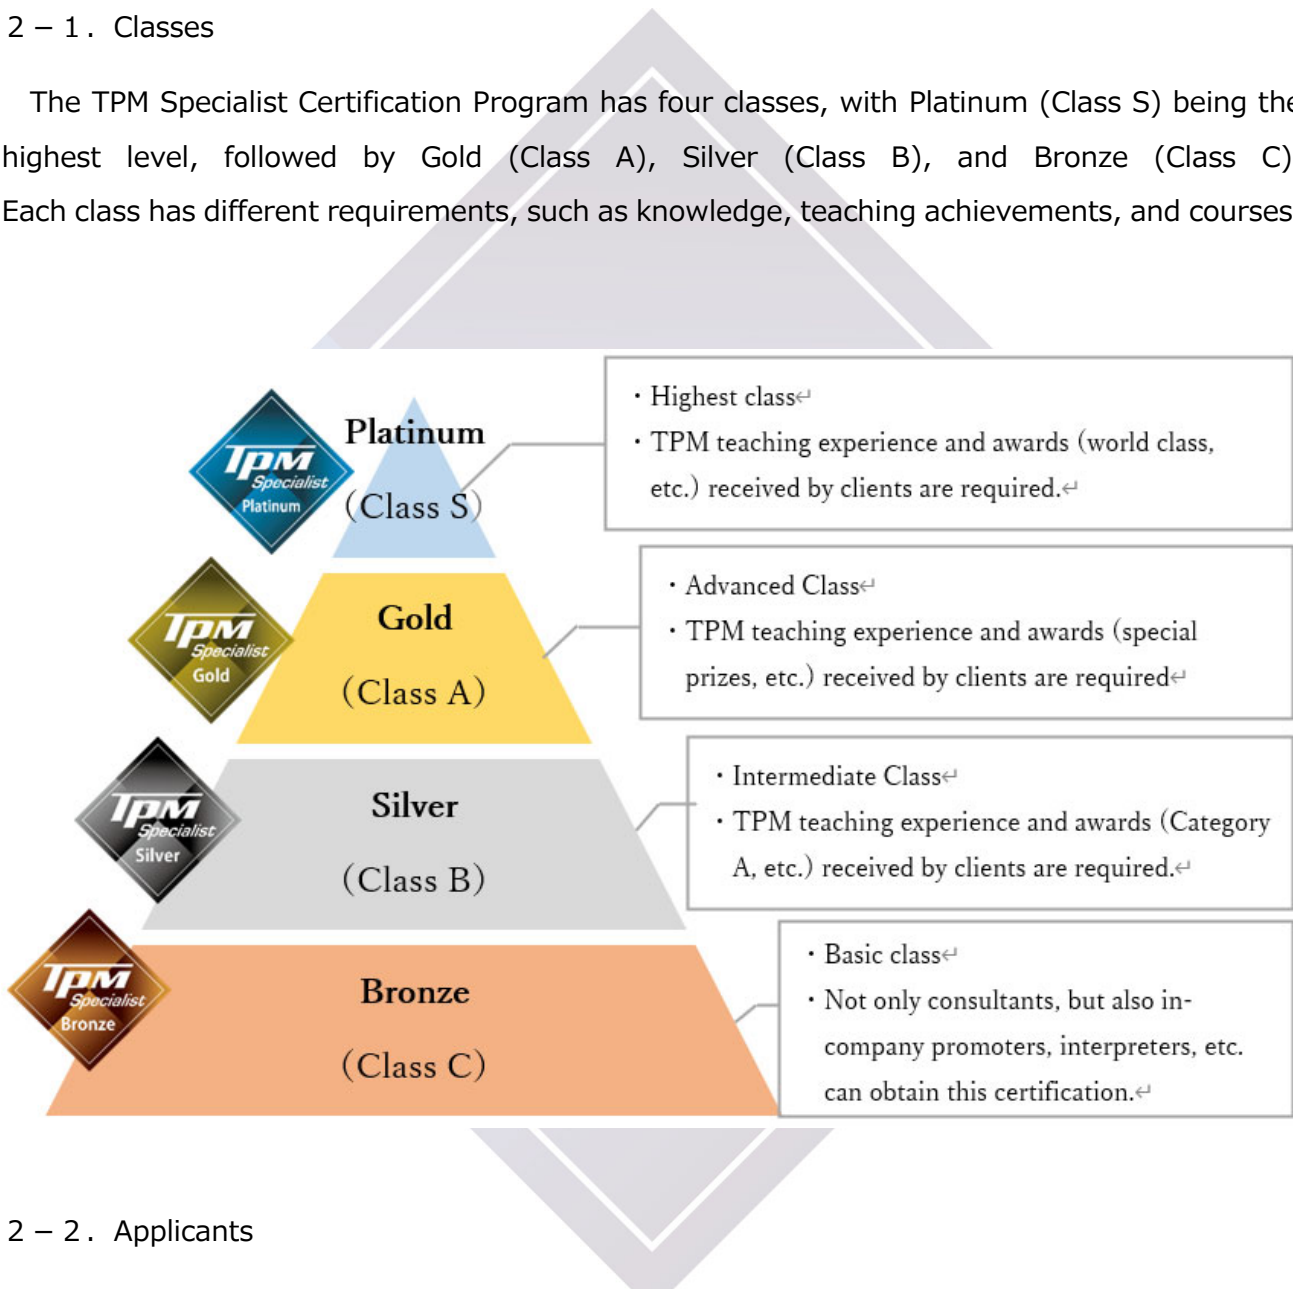

2. Details of the Certification Program

The TPM Specialist Certification Program defines the applicants and requirements according to the class. Please check each section for details.

2 – 1. Classes

The TPM Specialist Certification Program has four classes, with Platinum (Class S) being the highest level, followed by Gold (Class A), Silver (Class B), and Bronze (Class C). Each class has different requirements, such as knowledge, teaching achievements, and courses.

2 – 2. Applicants

The TPM Specialist Certification Program is basically for TPM consultants, in-company promoters, and interpreters.

Please note that Platinum, Gold, and Silver classes require TPM teaching experience, so only consultants are qualified for these classes.

2 – 3 . Requirements

Applicants and certification for each class are as follows

Class	Applicants	Requirements
Platinum (Class S)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TPM consultants 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Meet all of the following consulting and awarded experiences <ul style="list-style-type: none"> World-class award :1 plant Special Award or above: 6 plants Category A or Consistent award: 10 plants • Reports • Gold certification*

Bronze (Class C)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • TPM consultants • In-company promoters • Interpreters 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Course Attendance (Online, equivalent to 3 days) • Certification test

- Consulting achievements (for Platinum, Gold, Silver classes)

Platinum, Gold, and Silver classes require TPM consulting experience. To meet the requirements, the plant that applicants have guided receives the certain number of TPM Excellence Awards in each category. To prove experience, applicants must be named as a consultant on TPM award application each plant had submitted.

 Relaxed requirements for Platinum and Gold classes

: applications only through December 2025

As an initial special treatment for the establishment of the certification program, the requirements for Platinum and Gold will be relaxed for applications through December 2025 only. Those who already have an award-winning teaching partner will be able to register for classes based on their teaching achievement after receiving Bronze certification. (Registration fee is additional)

Class	General Requirements	Relaxed Requirements
Platinum (Class S)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consulting Achievements • Reports • Gold certification 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consulting Achievements • Reports • Bronze certification
Gold (Class A)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consulting Achievements • Reports • Silver certification 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consulting Achievements • Reports • Bronze certification

• Reports (for Platinum, Gold, Silver classes)

Platinum, Gold, and Silver classes require the submission of a report. The report must be written in either English or Japanese, and must include information on the content, achievements, and career history of applicants. Applicant can submit the report only in March, and September of each year. It will take about one month from submission to registration for certification (at the end of the following month).

• Bronze or higher certification (for Platinum, Gold, Silver classes)

The Platinum, Gold, and Silver classes require that applicants have enough knowledge of TPM. Therefore, it is necessary to have completed the Bronze certification requirements, which include attending a training course and certification test.

• Course Attendance (for Bronze class)

For the Bronze class, applicants are required to take a designated on-demand training course (in English). The course consists of approximately 15 hours of lectures (5 hours x 3 days). The course is offered on-demand* and it is available freely within given period (until the most recent test).

- Certification test (for Bronze class)

To be certified in the Bronze class, applicant must take a test after attending the training course (after the course period) and achieve a passing score. The test consists of written questions (answered in English or Japanese) related to TPM activities.

Passing score: 65 or more (out of 100)

Applicant can take the certification test only in March, and September of each year. It will take about one month from examination to registration for certification (at the end of the following month).

2 – 4 . Fee

The TPM Specialist Certification Program requires fees to register for certification. The details and amounts of the fees are as follows.

Class	Fee for Certification
Bronze	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Course attendance/Test taking fee (per one time) : 300,000 yen *The test can be taken up to twice in one course (extra 30,000 yen for taking test a second time.) *No first registration fee (for 3 years) *Certificants will be listed on the web page.
